Sub: The period of probation of 2 years referred to in Rule 22 of flag A is applicable to all Depts and of the proposal of the Insurance Secy. to reduce this period by 1 year as sanctioned, it has to be seen as a special case. This involves a change in the C.R.B. rules & is for orders the C.R.Bd. is not in favour of the proposal.

13) At present the period of probation does not count towards increment. It is now proposed to allow the probationers to count the reduced period of one year (1 year) towards increment. It may kindly here that generally the graduate & highly qualified candidates are started on a higher pay than the minimum of the grade i.e Rs 25/- 2½ - 50 - (as in the linked file) the C.R.Bd. is against this proposal also.

14) On a recommendation from the Insurance Secy that considering the pay in which graduates are started in other depts, the minimum of Rs 25/ in the Insurance Dept is low & that the men employed should be started on a higher pay, Govt ordered that such cases where the qualifications were high may be recommended to Govt for giving them advanced increments. In this office letter No.681/TAD A i dated 8-5-36 addressed to the Secretary, Insurance Committee, and quoted by him in his letter No.1255 dated 17-7-36 to Government, the Secretary was informed that under the revised Central Recruitment Board Rules and the rules in Mysore Service Regulations, there was no clear provision to confirm the probationers with retrospective effect from the date of appointment and to allow them to count probationary service for earning increments. The question was however fully examined with relevant rules in force in British India and certain proposals have been submitted to Government in this office letter No.204/Forest dated 10-8-36 vide also my U.O.Note No. 298 TAD B ii dated 1-10-1936. Those proposals apply to the Insurance office also and orders thereon may be made applicable to all Departments.

Grant of increments to officials recruited on probation under the rules of the C.R.B.

W.O. 15

File No. 29/2 of 193 | General and Revenue Secretariat

Serial No.

23) Rule 22 of the C.R.B. rules lays down that a candidate selected for admission to the subordinate service by direct recruitment shall, from the date on which he joins duty as such, be on probation for a period of two years. The main point for consideration in this and the two other files linked thereto is whether the period of probation counts for increments. According to Mysore Service Regulations, all appointments against sanctioned posts will either be permanent or temporary including Sub-pro-tem and officiating appointments. The intention of Rule 22 of the C.R.B. rules appears to be that every official should be appointed only on a non-substantive basis for a period of 2 years so that the officials' services may be terminated at the end of the period if found not satisfactory. This is, I think, the only limitation and it is open to the appointing authorities to appoint the officials as 'Temporary', 'Sub-pro-tem', or 'Officiating', as the vacancies against which they are appointed may admit in each case. (vide also Rule 23 of the C.R.B. rules which states that a probationer may act in any permanent or temporary post in the service for which he is qualified.) The grant of increments will then be regulated with reference to the provisions in the M.S.R. and with reference to any departmental rules or regulations in respect of it. Acc. to the M.S.R persons can not get increments but Spl. Comps. and provisional permanent men can get

21 JULY 1936
GEN. & REV. SECTT.

To

S. SHAMANNA, Esq., B.A.,
Financial Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

Adverting to Government Order No.6-105-c. R.B.1-34-1 dated 13rd July 1934 issuing Revised Rules of Recruitment, I have the honour to state that the First class appointments of this office to which direct recruitment is made carries a progressive rate of pay of Rs.25-2½-50/- and under Rule 22 of the said Government Order, the recruit has to be on probation for two years during which period he will not be eligible for any increment. A copy of letter No.681/A.1 dated 8th May 1936 from the Comptroller giving his opinion in the matter is enclosed. As it is, this office is working under a disadvantage when compared with other offices in Bangalore in respect of starting salary, increments, future prospects, etc., inspite of this being of the nature of a commercial one, and these drawbacks combined with the long probationery period seems to hit the officials hard. Besides, it is found by experience that in virtue of the high general qualification required of the probationer under the rules, a minimum period of probation for one year and a pass in the prescribed Departmental Examination for confirmation appears to be sufficient to enable the official to satisfactorily handle the work expected of him.

Further, the official if placed on a very long period of probation and is deprived of the increments also, will naturally lose the incentive to work and will always be trying to get away to some other Department. In a Department like this which is run on commercial lines and where a large number of recruits have to be entertained entertained frequently, either on pro-rata basis or in temporary or in leave vacancies, this will affect adversely the efficiency in working. I would therefore, suggest for kind consideration of Government a slight modification of the Rule at least for this Department, namely, that the probationers may be allowed to be confirmed retrospectively from the dates of their appointment in permanent vacancies immediately after they pass the required Departmental Examination, provided they have put in a minimum probationery period of one year and to allow them the benefit of increment also, (the period of two years' probation being kept as the outside limit allowed for probationers to qualify themselved for confirmation) subject to the proviso that this confirmation will not alter the relative position of the officials agreeably to Rule 29 of the Government Orders referred to in Para (1) until the maximum period of 2 years is over in each case.

Sl. No.	Name.	Present pay (Initial)	Date of appointment in a permanent vacancy	Date of increment (next higher grade.

3.	" P.N.Lakshminarayana Rao.	30/-	25-3-1935.	25-3-1936.

At present, the marginally noted probationery second grade clerks have fulfilled the conditions set forth. I, therefore, request kind sanction of Government for confirming the officials from the dates of their appointment in the permanent vacancies and to their drawing the increments from the dated noted against their names also. The Departmental Examination which they have passed was held in January 1936.

I have the honour to be,

For Secretary,

HN 14/7/36

Copy of letter No.681/A.1. dated 8th May 1936 received from the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

With reference to your letter No.17321 dated 28-3-1936 and subsequent reminder thereon No.18208 dated 16-4-1936 enquiring whether the officials appointed under the revised C.R.B. rules in permanent vacancies as probationers for two years could earn increments during their periods of probation and could draw arrears of increment later on, on confirmation, if the confirmation is ordered retrospectively, I have the honour to state that para 22 of G.O.No.6-105/C.R.B.1-34-1 dated 3-7-34 requires that a candidate selected for admission to the subordinate service by direct recruitment should be on probation for a period of two years from the date on which he joins duty and para 29 of the same order clearly states that such official should be appointed as a member of the service only after the successful completion of the period of probation. Further, under rule 23 of the G.O. cited above the tenure of the appointments held during the periods of probation is to be held as being only on an acting basis. Hence under article 76 of M.S.R. during the probation the officials are entitled only to the minimum of the progressive pay or the special minimum on which they are appointed under special orders and the period of probation does not count for increments nor can arrears of increments be drawn in respect of the said period on subsequent confirmation without special orders of Government on the merits of each, individually. Government in their order No.Fl.5849-50/G.F.2-27-45 dated 20-1-1928 have clearly ordered that the period of probation cannot be allowed to be counted as service for purposes of increment.
